Code	PREPLA200
Name	Language Awareness 200
Hours per week	3
Credit Value	3
ECTS	4
Level/Year	English Prep.
Type	Compulsory
Prerequisites	PREPLA100
Description	This course has been set up to enable students to understand and use the mechanics of intermediate level general and academic English, such that they will be primed to learn to use English better in more advanced applications and for further academic purposes in English 101. In addition to a focus on syntax and lexis the course also contains an introduction to notions of discourse. The course is designed to aid learners in all their language work across the curriculum.
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Teaching syntactic and discourse devices for making speech and writing more academically authoritative; - Teaching students to use English to report the ideas of others with appropriate attribution in a more or less academic register; - Providing students with a strong grounding in academic lexis by teaching frequently used academic vocabulary (as listed in resources such as the Academic Word List); - Equipping students with tools for self-directed language learning from which they can profit in all courses, and future programs, where they will be using English for academic purposes.
Learning Outcomes	At the end of Language Awareness 200, learners will be able to: LO1. identify grammatical relationships that are prevalent in Reading and Listening texts at the AGU 200 level LO2. enhance reading ability by being able to understand more complex grammatical and discourse features in any text; LO3. interpret the scope of ideas and claims expressed by others as well as using hedging in their own writing to limit the scope of their own reports/claims; LO4. make use of utterances/ideas of others by means of a range of techniques, including summary, paraphrasing, and in-text citation, to make writing/speech more authoritative; LO5. study academic texts to be able to adopt lexical, syntactic, and discourse features to improve expression.
